Wonderful World Book Day

By Kleio Vlisidou and Daisy Pam Lee

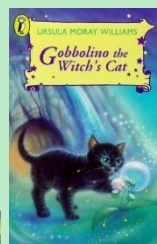

DURHAM Lane's World Book Day this year was a day of fun where each class dressed up as their favourite book character, on Friday 4th March.

Some of these costumes included Matilda, Harry Potter characters (Harry, Hermione, Draco) and Alice in Wonderland. Lots of fun was had! On the Thursday (the day before the children dressed up) the children brought in a book they had already read and didn't want anymore to swap it with another book from a different person! At the end of the day the children came home with a brand new book that formerly belonged to one of their friends.

Here are some of our favourites:

Mrs Sampson:
Gobolino the Witch's Cat

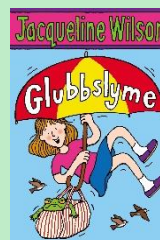

Kleio Vlisidou and Seb Atkinson:
Warrior Cats

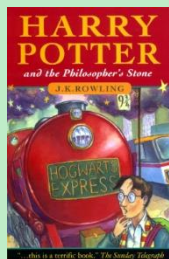

Isla Rochester:
The Christmas Pig

Maisy Donaldson:
Glubbslyme

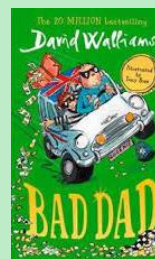

Tabitha Tough and Joseph Davies:
Couldn't pick a book but Tabitha's favourite author is Tui. T. Sutherland and Joseph's is Roald Dahl

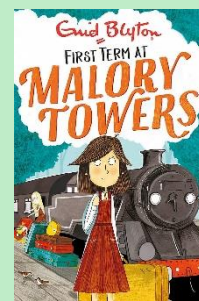

Daisy Pam Lee and Holly Corner:
Harry Potter

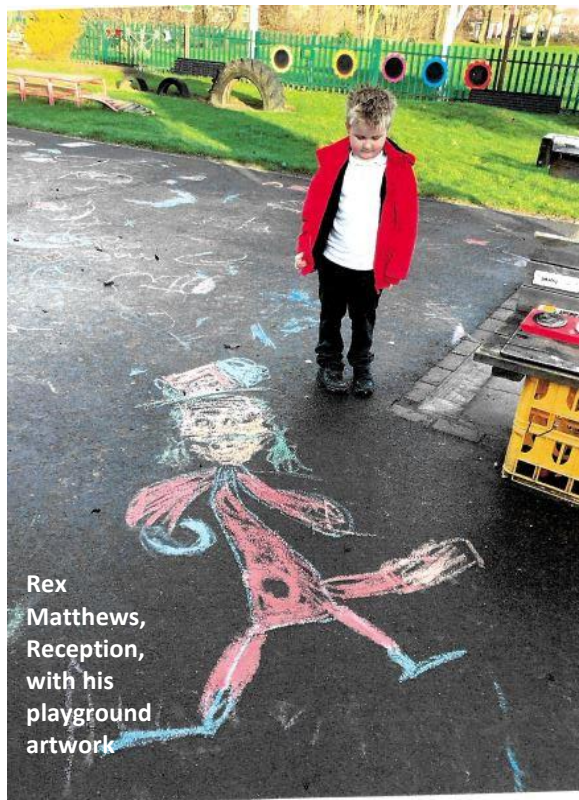

Zach Watts:
George's Marvellous Medicine

George Davies:
Bad Dad

Daisy Cooper:
Malory Towers

Creative Art Competition

By Tabitha Tough and Freya Stewart

Everyone draws differently, and that's fine! Everyone can draw (they just need to pick up a pencil and draw shapes on paper) it's whether you want everyone to see it!

If you are someone who would like to share your artwork with others, then here is where you can showcase it! It's simple: draw and then send it to the Newspaper Club. Sadly, we might not be able to put all the art in here, but we'll fit as many in as we can!

There could even be some prizes for those voted the best. Ask a parent to go on to the school's Facebook page to cast your vote, and we'll announce the winners in the next edition of Durham Lane News. If you wish to share your artwork for our next edition, please submit it to Mrs Sampson, or hand it to your class teacher.

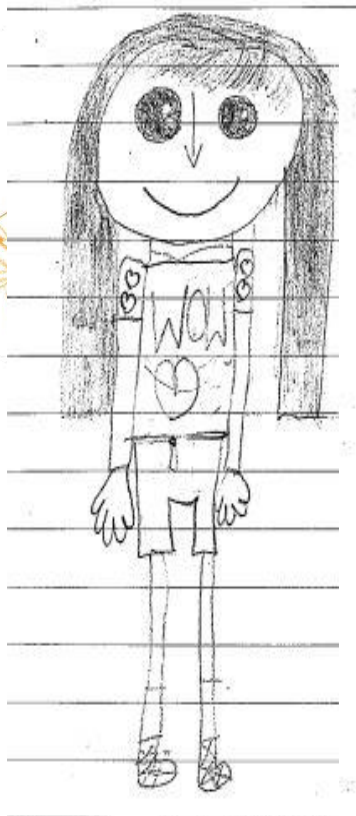

Some children have already submitted their art and you can see it on this page.

We're just joking!

Why are Dalmatians bad at hide and seek?

Because they always get spotted!

What do you call a pirate chef?

Master of the seven spices!

What do you get when you cross a porcupine with a balloon?

Pop!

What do cats eat?

Mice-cream!

Why did the fox cross the road?

To get to the chicken!

Why did the cow cross the road?

To go to the moo-vies!

Why did the photographer take a photo of the prisoner?

Because he was framed!

Comic relief

By Daisy Pam Lee, Zach Watts, Tabitha Tough and Joseph Davies

IT all started on the 5th of February in 1988 when Comic Relief was created.

Last year we dressed up as superheroes to raise money for comic relief and had fun wearing last year's fabulous red noses: Chief, Robin, Snail, Fox, Badger, Caterpillar, Lady B, Daisy, Tommy and the special edition red nose Golden Tommy.

Comedian Sir Lenny Henry came up with the idea for Red Nose Day and Peter Barnes designs the red noses every year.

This year, there will be a televised fundraiser on BBC One, hosted by David Tennant, Paddy McGuinness, Zoe Ball and Comic Relief founder Sir Lenny Henry. Olympic diver Tom Daley will be taking on an epic journey in aid of the charity, as he'll be heading out on a four-day adventure.

Mighty Boro strike again

By George Davies and Seb Atkinson

THERE are lots of football fans here at Durham Lane Primary School.

The past few weeks have been really exciting for those of us who support Middlesbrough Football Club: the mighty Boro are smashing it in the FA Cup!

Boro have got three wins in the FA Cup including Mansfield, Man United and Tottenham Hotspur. On the 3rd March Everton FC beat Boreham Wood FC 2-0. Next in the FA Cup Middlesbrough FC are up against Chelsea FC in the quarter finals on the 19th March at 17:00.

Further afield, we can all look forward to an exciting World Cup this year. The World Cup is a football competition. This year it is on the 21 November 2022. What happens is international team v each other to see who is the best international team of that year.

This year it is in Qatar [Saudi Arabia]. In 2018 it was held in Russia and France got all the attention for winning the Russian world cup. This year England are going to Qatar to win the World Cup. The first ever World Cup was held in 30 July 1930 and Uruguay National Football Team won. England have once won it which was on 30 July 1966.

- We hope to bring you some exciting interviews with football players in our next edition, so keep your eyes peeled for Edition 3!
